

Request for a Nomination Extension

The personal information collected through the Alberta Advantage Immigration Program is collected for purpose of administering the program. This personal information collection is authorized by section 33(c) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. If you have any questions about the collection of personal information, you may contact the Operations Manager at 780-638-2843, using the Opportunity Alberta contact form at www.alberta.ca/contact-opportunity-alberta or by mail to Alberta Advantage Immigration Program, C/O Service Alberta and Red Tape Reduction Mailroom – Commerce Place, 10155 102 Street, Edmonton, AB, T5J 4G8.

Your Alberta Advantage Immigration Program Nomination gives you six (6) months to submit your Application for Permanent Residence as a Provincial Nominee to Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC). You are expected to submit your complete application to IRCC before your nomination expires. If your nomination expires and you request an extension, the reasons why you need an extension will be reviewed by the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. Before submitting a request for a nomination extension, ensure you have read the information and conditions stated in the After you are nominated section for your stream on the website. There is no guarantee that you will be issued an extension.

To request a nomination extension from the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada, complete this form, assemble any supporting documents required and email to the Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. The email address can be found on the bottom of page 3 of this form. The Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada will not accept incomplete forms, forms without supporting documents, or forms submitted by mail or fax.

B. Extension request

I declare that this is my first request for an Alberta Advantage Immigration Program nomination extension

If you have previously requested and were granted a nomination extension, you will not be granted any further extensions.

The Alberta Advantage Immigration Program must receive your extension request within six months of the expiry date of your original nomination. If more than six months have passed since the expiry date of your original nomination, you are not eligible for a nomination extension.

C. Reason for extension request: (check the situation that best applies to you)

I applied to IRCC before my nomination expired (within 6 months of receiving my nomination) and IRCC returned my application.

Date you submitted your application: (mm/dd/yyyy)

Date application was returned to you by IRCC: (mm/dd/yyyy)

Reason that IRCC returned your application (include copy of return letter from IRCC with this form):

I have not yet applied to IRCC and my nomination has expired.

Explain why you were not able to submit to IRCC before your nomination expiry date.

D. Declaration: (You must sign and date this form)

I declare that the information I have given is truthful, complete and correct.

I understand that the information I have provided does not guarantee that I will receive a nomination extension from the Alberta Advantage Immigration Program.

I understand that my extension request is subject to all conditions that were in place at the time my original nomination was issued by the Alberta Advantage Immigration Program.

Signature of Nominee:

Date: (mm/dd/yyyy)

IMPORTANT: All requests for nomination extension are subject to a processing fee of $150). You must include a copy of the online fee payment receipt with your request.

Submit your complete form and supporting documents to the Alberta Advantage Immigration Program using the Opportunity Alberta contact form at www.alberta.ca/contact-opportunity-alberta

Extension requests will take up to 30 days to process. The Alberta Advantage Immigration Program will not respond to any status inquiries about nomination extension requests. The program will not confirm receipt of documents.
