Process and Forms

Do not use this guide unless the application is for guardianship only.

The processes and forms referred to in this guide are found on our website:

- Information for guardianship - <https://www.alberta.ca/adult-guardianship.aspx>

Forms required to apply for guardianship:

- Capacity Assessment Report - Form 4
- Application - Form 14
- Affidavit of Applicant - Form 15
- Guardianship Plan - Form 32
- Consent of Guardian - Form 24
- Consent of Alternate Guardian - Form 26 (if applicable)
- Personal References - Form 30

Capacity Assessment Report - Form 4

Capacity Assessment Report (CAR) - Form 4

The Capacity Assessment Report (CAR) is completed by a physician, psychologist or a registered capacity assessor.

Item 13 will indicate what areas of decision making you will be applying for in your application.

The legislation requires that the CAR – Form 4 must not be dated more than 6 months before the date the application is submitted.

If you are using an older CAR, explain why you are not using a current report and request the court to accept the older report:

- See Application - Form 14, item 10.2.
- Pick Yes and include the explanation.

Application - Form 14

Application - Form 14

First page

- Court File Number - leave blank.
- Judicial Centre drop-down selection - pick the centre closest to where the adult lives.
- Adult's Full Name – The adult is the person you want to represent. Fill in their full legal name. Use the same full name on all the required documents.
- Applicant's Name – You are the applicant. Fill in your full legal name. Use the same full name on all the required documents.
- Applicant's Address for Service – if you are completing the application without the assistance of a lawyer, check the box next to the first 'This section is not applicable to this application' and enter your mailing address in the section for a 'Non Lawyer Application'.

Sections

- 1.1 Unless you want a hearing in court, choose desk.
- 1.2 Check the box next to appointment of guardian.
- 1.3 Drop-down selection. Pick your relationship to the adult.
2. Information about the adult – Fill out this section. Only fill out the present address if it is different than the permanent address (for example, the adult is currently in a hospital).

Application - Form 14 (cont'd)

- 3.1 If the answer is Yes, check the box(es) that apply and fill in the next review date, if known.
- 3.2 On this application a 'decision-maker' is a legal term. These are legally recognized decision-makers: guardians, trustees, co-decision makers, and supporters.
- Click the Add Name button to enter information for each additional person, if needed. Include mailing addresses and email addresses for everyone listed in this section. Indicate the current, if applicable, and proposed position(s) for each person. If No was checked in 3.1, everyone listed will be proposed.
- 3.3 If needed, click the Add Attorney button for every attorney listed on the adult's enduring power of attorney.
- 3.4 If needed, click the Add Agent button for every agent listed on the adult's personal directive.
- 4.1 If needed, click the Add Family Member button for every living family member over 18 if they match a category.
- 4.2 Complete if applicable.
- 4.3 If needed, click the Add Name button for each interested person to be given notice of this application.
- 5.1 This section does not appear unless the application is for a review.
- 5.2 Review Item 13 of the Capacity Assessment Report and indicate the personal matters you are proposing to apply for decision-making authority.

Application - Form 14 (cont'd)

5.3 This section is about having more than one guardian (not including alternate guardians):

- If there is only one proposed guardian, check Not Applicable.
- Check No if there is more than one guardian and you want the guardians to be able to act separately on all personal matters.
- Check Yes if you want:
 - The guardians to make decisions jointly in one or more of the areas of authority or
 - One of the guardians would be the decision-maker in one or more specific area of authority and the other guardian(s) would be responsible for other areas.

5.4 The assessor who completed the Capacity Assessment Report may have suggested a review period. This would be indicated in Item 14 of the report.

- If you do not feel a review is necessary, then check off the last box and ensure your affidavit explains why a review isn't needed.

6. This section is not applicable for a first-time application for guardianship.

7. This section is not applicable for a first-time application for guardianship.

8.1 Check all that apply.

8.2 Check the second box. Each proposed guardian and alternate guardian is required to complete a Personal References – Form 30.

Application - Form 14 (cont'd)

9. This section is about sending notification letters to everyone listed on the application.

- Check 'This section is not applicable to the application' if notification letters can be sent to all people listed on the application – as usually happens when an application is received. Go to section 10.
- Do not check 'This section is not applicable to the application' if – for some reason – you are asking the court to not notify a person or persons listed on the application. Complete sections 9.1 and/or 9.2. You will need to explain your reasons in your affidavit.

10.1 Indicate how the costs of the application will be paid.

- A court filing fee of $300.00 is required, unless you are requesting that the costs be paid by the Crown.
 - Payment can be in the form of a cheque or money order payable to 'Government of Alberta' included with your application, or
 - Pay with credit card – further information will be provided after your application has been submitted.
- The Crown in right of Alberta may agree to pay a specified amount and reasonable disbursements towards the costs associated with the application if paying the costs is a financial hardship for the adult and the applicant. Provide proof of the adult's hardship in the "Costs" section of your affidavit. The applicant will be required to complete a Hardship Application for Costs Against the Crown form.

10.2 Complete this item if you have a special request you are making, such as accepting an older Capacity Assessment Report. If you do not have a special request, select No.

Only the applicant is required to sign this form.

Affidavit - Form 15

Affidavit - Form 15

14. A Commissioner of Oaths or Notary Public will need to commission this document. The applicant signs this document in the presence of a Commissioner of Oaths or Notary Public. The OPGT staff are available to commission and witness signatures on your documents.

Guardianship Plan - Form 32

Guardianship Plan - Form 32

Enter the same information on the top section of the first page that was entered on your application form.

Proposed Represented Adult – complete all areas of this section.

Proposed Guardian/Alternate Guardian – click the Add Name button to enter information for each proposed guardian and alternate guardian.

Sections

1. Enter the date that the Capacity Assessment Report was completed, as indicated on the last page of the report, and refer to Item 13 in the report for the personal matters that the adult needs a guardian.
- 2 – 10 These sections are required – fill out as directed. Some things to keep in mind when completing these sections:
 - As much as possible, the adult should be informed of and included in the decision making process.
 - Guardianship may not always be permanent. For example, a person may recover decision making abilities after a stroke. Think about how you might plan to encourage the adult's independence.
 - When making decisions on behalf of the adult, consideration must be given to the adult's wishes, values and beliefs, if known, and what is in the best interests of the adult.

All proposed guardians and proposed alternate guardians must sign this form.

Consent Forms 24 & 26

Consent of Proposed Guardian - Form 24

Each proposed guardian must complete a Consent of Proposed Guardian - Form 24 giving their consent to act as guardian.
