

Safeguards for Albertans receiving mental health and addiction services

Information and reporting line:

Call 780-422-4703 or dial toll-free 310-0000 and enter 780-422-4703 when prompted

If you have a concern, start by raising it with your service provider. If your concern hasn't been resolved, you have the option to contact Mental Health and Addiction.

Call if you have concerns about:

- Treatment or services received from a licensed service provider;
- Suspected non-compliance with legislative requirements; or
- Suspected addiction treatment services being offered or provided by an unlicensed service provider.
